

KINGSTON COMMUNITY SCHOOL

Country style education with city style opportunities

CURRICULUM PATTERN

Kingston Community School seeks to provide a balanced and challenging education to all students with a range of extra curricula activities.

Students at Kingston Community School are required to undertake 8 areas of study during their compulsory years of schooling. These areas are:

- English
- Mathematics
- Health and Physical Education
- Science
- Society and the Environment
- The Arts
- Technology
- Languages other than English.

YEARS R – 7

Kingston Community School R-7 curriculum covers the broad areas as follows

- English: (Reading, Writing, Spelling, Listening and Speaking) Handwriting.
- Language other than English: (German)
- Mathematics
- Science
- Society and Environment, (Social Studies, Environmental Studies)
- Health and Physical Education
- The Arts (Art, Craft, Music, Drama, Choir)
- Design and Technology

Some subjects are taken by specialist teachers.

Special Education support is available for identified students in mainstream classes.

Special Programmes for students at risk are offered when possible

SSO support for students with disabilities is available for targeted lessons.